It is with great sadness that we announce the death of Fr Simon Bishop SJ, who died on the evening of Sunday 4 January 2026. He was 58 years old and in the 33rd year of his religious life. May he rest in peace.

Simon Bishop was born in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, on 28 March 1967, the youngest of four children of George (who died in 2001) and Dawn. He was baptised at St Peter's, Oyster Bay, on 8 April 1967. Several happy early years were spent in Fiji before the family returned to Britain. Simon was confirmed at St Peter's, Stonyhurst, on 4 November 1979.

He was educated at Stonyhurst College from 1975 to 1985, where qualities that would remain with him throughout his life were already apparent. One Jesuit who was starting to teach there recalls encountering him as a schoolboy serving at the altar: "There was this little carrot-head waiting for me with a welcoming smile. He knew exactly what to do and did it with grace and dignity." In his final year at Stonyhurst, Simon was taught Scripture in preparation for university, and was remembered as thoughtful, generous, and deeply engaged. He was also a keen sportsman, playing cricket both at school and later at university.

Simon went on to study Theology at Cambridge University (1986–89). Friends recall watching him play cricket for the University during these years and accompanying him on pilgrimage to Lourdes, experiences that reflected both his sociability and his growing spiritual depth. After Cambridge, Simon trained as a social worker at the University of York (1990–92). During these years, those close to him sensed an evident vocation taking shape. As one Jesuit later reflected, "I found myself wondering why he was not applying to enter the Society ... and eventually he gave in to the Lord." Simon entered the Jesuit novitiate in Birmingham in September 1993, on the Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows.

From the very beginning of his Jesuit life, his qualities were apparent to those around him. A fellow novice recalls that "from the first day of the novitiate" Simon was unselfish, focused on others, and genuinely interested in them. Studies in philosophy followed at Heythrop College (1995–98), after which Simon undertook Regency at Wimbledon College, working in teaching and youth ministry. He then moved to Paris to study theology at the Centre Sèvres, where he was ordained deacon at St Ignace in 2003. Later that same year, he was ordained priest at the Sacred Heart, Wimbledon, a moment remembered with great joy by those who had accompanied him from his early years.

In 2004, Simon was missioned as Chaplain to St Aloysius' College, Glasgow. Here, his focus on other people and their needs became especially visible. One Jesuit recalls walking with him from the Jesuit house, which was then in Woodside Place, to the College, a walk of about half a mile, and observing how Simon greeted, by name, everyone they encountered: "He knew the name of every person he saw on that journey and greeted them all by name, every coffee-seller, every beggar, every person walking their dog, and certainly every pupil and every member of staff. He had an incredible ability to befriend, but he could do it because he was genuinely interested in every person he met."

Appointed Vocations Promoter in 2006, Simon accompanied many as they discerned their calling. In 2009, he undertook Tertiationship in Australia, travelling via Guyana, before returning to the British Province. He was then missioned to the Oxford University Chaplaincy, first as Assistant Chaplain and, from 2010, as Senior Chaplain. During his years in Oxford, Simon took his Final Vows in November 2011.

Oxford was also a place where many experienced Simon's calm, reflective spirituality and gentle joy. From 2013, he served as Chaplain to the Oxford Leg of the Student Cross pilgrimage. Those who journeyed with him remember that "he brought the leg calm, reflective spirituality, and joy — his sense of humour was evident throughout." He also drew other Jesuits into this work, including novices, quietly modelling companionship in mission. Jesuit friends recall overlapping with him in Oxford, sharing ministry, conversation, and sacramental life, including hearing one another's confessions. On one such occasion, Simon's radiant smile after absolution was accompanied by the words, "What a privilege to be able to say those words!"

Liturgical Calendar

This Sunday we celebrate The Baptism of the Lord, marking the moment Jesus stepped into the waters of the Jordan and was revealed as the beloved Son of God. This feast closes the Christmas season and invites us to reflect on our own baptism - the beginning of our journey as children of God filled with the Holy Spirit and called to live in His light. Just as the Father's voice affirmed Jesus we too' are reminded that we are loved, chosen, and sent to share that love with the world. May this 'celebration renew our commitment to walk in faith, serve with humility, and bear witness to the Good News in our daily lives.

Octave of Prayer for Christian Unity 2026

In 2026, the Week (or Octave) of Prayer for Christian Unity will be observed from 18th to 25th January, as is traditional in many parts of the world. This period bridges the feasts of St. Peter (18 January) and St. Paul (25 January), symbolising unity in the diversity of the Church.

The theme for 2026 is drawn from Ephesians 4:4:

"There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling."

This theme invites Christians to reflect on the deep spiritual bond that unites all believers in Christ, despite denominational differences. The focus will be on:

Unity in diversity - recognising different traditions as part of one body.

Shared mission - working together for justice, peace, and reconciliation.

Prayer and fellowship - strengthening relationships through worship and dialogue
