Accompanying in Hope
Saturday 20th September, Edinburgh workshop 11 am – 3.30 .00 pm
Sacred Heart Church, Lauriston

“Let us all walk together...” Pope Leo XIV

Pope Leo XIV, like Pope Francis before him, is calling us to be more and more a pilgrim people, accompanying one another and accompanying others in the world. As Jesuit parishes we are asking ‘what does this mean for us, individually’ and ‘what does this mean for us as a parish?’ We’ll be exploring these questions when we gather for our Scottish Jesuit Parish workshop on Saturday 20th September. Everyone is invited to attend.

We gather with Sacred Heart Church in Lauriston, the Edinburgh Jesuit Church During this jubilee year, the workshop will help us reflect on our roles as pilgrims of hope in our own settings. It will also challenge us to consider how our parishes are pilgrims of hope to others – walking with them, listening and dialoguing with them, and accompanying them in the midst of their lives. We will explore how we can develop practical ways to live and share our faith as a parish community. What are we called to actually do?

Please do join us. Transport will be provided. To assist practical arrangements, please email stalloysius.garnethill@rcag.org.uk to let us know you will be attending. Scan the QR Code to watch an invitation from our workshop facilitator.

Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill: The Bill, which narrowly passed through the House of Commons by 314-291 votes, is expected to return to Parliament on 12th September with further scrutiny and debate in the days which follow. If it is to become law, the Bill must be supported by the Lords. The House of Lords would normally be expected to support a Bill where there is a solid majority in the Commons, but because the Commons majority for this Bill is just 23 votes and, crucially, the Bill is not a Government Bill, it is still possible that the Lords could reject it. Please consider contacting members of the House of Lords (especially those from Glasgow, since they are more likely to be interested in local views) and asking them to vote against it. If you google Care Not Killing or SPUC their websites offer some of the arguments against the Bill that you might want to use.

TAKE ACTION: a new EasyAction tool to help you email a few Peers directly. It creates a tailored message that highlights a key concern with the Bill and ensures it reaches the right Peers. Please take action and copy and use the link below to email Peers now. It only takes 30 seconds. :

The Pope's Prayer Intention for August

Each month, the Pope shares an intention and asks us to pray with him for the challenges that face humanity and the Church's mission. This month it is about mutual co-existence: "Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious or ideological reasons." Watch Pope Leo personally present his Intention at thepopevideo.org or pray with the Pope on the digital platform clicktopray.org
