Please contact your local MP on these unsafe, unfair and dangerous proposals. CAAD material is available. All deserve the right to be safe under the law. Encourage your MP to vote no to the unsafe Edwards proposals and defend full parliamentary scrutiny for all. See more at: <https://carenotkilling.org.uk/>

GENEROUS LEGACY

Parishioners may remember Miss Maeve Theresa McDonald, who was a parishioner for a long time at St. Aloysius, and who helped the parish in many ways, including the finance committee and the GarnetHill Group. She was a reader as well as an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion. Maeve died in December 2023 and was buried from St Aloysius Church. Such was Maeve's love for St Aloysius Church that she left the parish a very substantial sum in her will. The amount has now been transferred to our accounts, less the usual amount that is payable to the Archdiocese for such transactions. I will be discussing with the parish finance committee how best to make good use of this generous legacy. Please pray for the repose of Maeve and also for the comfort and consolation of her family.
