Marking the fiftieth anniversary of the canonisation of St John Ogilvie, the wide-ranging series of events being planned are rooted in faith and open to the wider civic and cultural life of the city.

The new painting of St John Ogilvie by Gerard Burns has been unveiled during the Public lecture, 15 October 2026 and is available to see online on our parish website.

The Public lecture delivered as part of the Canonisation anniversary will be available to watch on the Ogilvie site soon.

We are preparing John Ogilvie exhibition in St Aloysius' Church which will take place during Advent and Christmas season, 1 December 2026 – 10 January 2027.

JESUIT YOUNG ADULT MINISTRIES CORNER
Make sure you take a look at our programme for more details here: https://yam.staloysiusglasgow.org Feel free to take any leaflets and booklets in the front porch area reserved for young adult events.

Our usual study time together, called GONZAGA TIMES at the OGILVIE now takes place on Wednesdays with the celebration of Holy Mass at 12.15pm in the Church. We will pray, share a meal together, whatever you bring yourself. We shall study until the Warm Hub at 5pm and spend some time with others. Come along if you need to the discipline of reading together.

Liturgical signing course at St Aloysius' for public – free of charge takes place half an hour on Saturdays after the 5pm Sunday Vigil Mass, 1st floor Ogilvie Centre. Come along at any point and learn about the Deaf Awareness formation. Please speak to Fr L Sulik SJ for more details.

Recycling: The Public Life Group is collecting old spectacles for people in developing countries and used stamps to help St Patrick's Missionary Society. Donations of these items are much appreciated and can be left in the boxes on the bookshelves in the baptistry at the back of the church. Please put any old British and foreign notes and coins for Mary's Meals in an envelope marked "Mary's Meals" and place them in the letterbox of the Ogilvie Centre. Thank you.

Praying for all souls in November: If you are aware of someone who died since 2nd November 2025 please contact the parish office so their name can be read out at the annual Remembrance Mass of those who died in the parish. During November there is also a book of remembrance in the Holy Souls Chapel, where names of deceased family and friends may be added. The book will be on the altar during Masses. Our Remembrance Mass will take place on Saturday 28th November 2026 at 12.15pm.

Legion of Mary at St Aloysius: Meet at the Ogilvie Centre (2nd Floor) on Mondays from 7pm. Please bring a rosary. This is a new group for our parish having a regular day and time to meet. All welcome to pray a prayer inspired by Mary, mother of Jesus and mother of God.

The Ogilvie Centre Lift has now been repaired. Thank you for your remarkable patience and understanding during this period. A survey has been carried out to help with the ongoing future of lift access to the four floors of the building.

Winter Warm Hub: Our warm hub for the winter begins on Wednesday 11th November 2026 and takes place each Wednesday night from 5 – 7.30pm on the second floor of the Ogilvie Centre. We welcome especially senior people and the lonely. Come for a hot cup of soup and a blether.

Advent Faith Sharing Group will take place on Tuesdays 24th November and 1st, 8th and 17th December after the 12.15pm Mass and in the evening at 6pm on the 3rd floor of the Ogilvie Centre. The focus will be on the Advent Sunday readings and they will last approximately one hour.

Christmas Fayre: You are warmly invited to annual Christmas Fayre in support of Laudato Si movement efforts which will take place this year on Saturday 19th December 2026 between 1pm – 4pm in the Ogilvie Centre Parish Hall. Would you please consider supporting this parish event by donating any gifts, craft work and the following: any good quality items, such as pictures, ornaments, toys, gift sets, books and green table items such as plants or plant pots for resale or any gardening items. These can be left in the Baptistry at the back of the church and will be collected by volunteers. All proceeds from the Fayre will go to an Eco project.

'Forming a Generation': On Monday 9th November from 6.30-8.30pm in St Andrew's Cathedral, 196 Clyde St, there will be an evening offered by Mark10 Mission and Alpha UK in conjunction with the RE Department of the Archdiocese, in helping children and young people encounter Jesus and become his disciples. This will be an evening of inspiration, practical formation, prayer and worship for anyone (clergy, parish catechists, children's liturgy groups, school staff from both Primary & Secondary sector) who wants to share the Catholic faith with children and young people. Register at https://www.themark10mission.co.uk/forming-a-generation or come along on the evening-you would be most welcome!

Saint Teresa of Calcutta: A celebration of her life on Monday 9th November in Saint Peter's, Partick with Adoration and Reflection in the Church at 6.00 pm followed by a cup of tea in the Hall at 7.00 pm and a screening of 'The Legacy' – a documentary about the life and work of Mother Theresa. Everyone welcome.

Mass for Deceased Clergy will take place on Friday 13th November at 1pm in the Cathedral. All are welcome.

Open Heaven: Come along to Stefan Smarts new play, "Open heaven"- it is focused on the Acts of the Apostles - the infant church coming to birth. Remember "I am Mark" - same guy-same chair - same brilliant revues - all welcome - pay at door- Friday 13th November 7pm Sacred Heart Hall, Cumbernauld. £10.

Mass of Thanksgiving for Marriage and Family Life: Archbishop Nolan will celebrate Holy Mass for married couples and families on Saturday 14th November at 1pm in the Cathedral. As well as rejoicing, we hope to acknowledge couples who are celebrating a significant anniversary at the Mass and recognise the witness they offer. Please let us know by 4th November if you are thinking of attending to prepare a small memento for you.

COP31 Climate Summit – Mass and Livestream Presentation: Come together to pray for all those taking part the United Nations Climate Change Conference (COP31) and for the care of our common home. Hosted by the Bishops' Conference of Scotland's Care of Creation Office and supported by Justice & Peace Scotland, SCIAF, and SCES this Mass will be celebrated by Archbishop Nolan. After Mass, join us for refreshments in Eyre Hall and a live video update from CAFOD. All are welcome. Thursday 12th November 2026 in St Andrew's Cathedral and Eyre Hall, 196 Clyde Street Glasgow. Time: Mass - 1:00pm | Livestream & Refreshments - 2:00pm

Financial Support for St Aloysius' Church

We rely on the generous financial support of those who worship in this church to keep the building and our mission in Glasgow afloat.

There are four ways you can contribute to your Sunday Collection or donation:
1 By setting up a Standing Order with your bank (this can be done online if you have a banking app or online banking). Paper Standing Order forms are available at the back of the church – just hand this in to your bank. 2 By making a contactless donation on the machines at the main entrance to the church. 3 By making an online donation using the QR code in the newsletter or on the bench. 4 By making a cash donation in the collection. If you are a UK taxpayer, please also sign a Gift Aid form – this enables us to claim from the government an additional 25p for every £1 you donate at no extra expense to yourself. Gift Aid forms are available in the narthex. The contactless machine also allows you to Gift Aid. If you use a gift aid envelope for your offering please write your name or gift aid number on the envelope so we can claim the gift aid. Thank you.
