Major Repair to the Church

For some time the Finance Committee have been concerned about the flaking paint and poor lighting in the church, and we now plan to do major repair work to rectify these. More details will be given about the work and the cost in future weeks, but this is to give advance notice of closures in the autumn, from late August to mid-December.

1. Mass and confessions will continue during the repair works.
2. On weekdays the Masses will be in the Ignatian Spirituality Centre in Scott Street.
3. The Saturday 5pm Mass and the Sunday Masses will be in the church. (Part of the church will be allocated by the builders at week-ends. (But see no 4 below)
4. On the week-ends of 3/4 Sept., 8/9 Oct. and 15/16 Oct. The church will not be available. For these week-ends the 5pm Saturday and 9pm Sunday Masses will be in the Ignatian Spirituality Centre, whilst the 10am and 12pm Masses will be in St. Aloysius' College hall.
5. Baptisms are possible in the church when the week-ends are available, but not recommended.
6. St. Patrick's have kindly said they are willing to host funerals from us during this period.

We regret the inconvenience this will cause, but believe that if we all work together we will cope with the difficulties. The work will be finished shortly before Christmas.

Archbishop Nolan appalled at UK plan to send migrants to Rwanda. He has spoken out strongly against the UK governments immigration policy. During a visit to Dungavel refugee detention centre on Sunday, the Archbishop said that he was appalled and scandalised by their plans to send people to Rwanda. Archbishop Nolan also tweeted - The policy of forcibly deporting to Rwanda people who have come to this country in search of safety and security is morally wrong. It is an offence against human dignity and against all the best traditions of welcome of this country. In a statement Justice and Peace Scotland said they hope that everyone will now unite in saying enough is enough and demand this policy of forced deportation to Rwanda is scrapped and that all policies designed to create a hostile environment here in the UK for refugees and asylum seekers are ended.
