Ecumenical Evening Prayer honouring St Margaret and marking the St Margaret Declaration , Thur 17th November 2022, 7pm St Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow

The Saint Margaret Declaration between the Church of Scotland and the Catholic Church in Scotland: We believe in one God, the Creator; we believe in Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son, true God and true man, fully divine and fully human, who died in the flesh and rose to save us from sin and death; and we believe in the Holy Spirit. We believe in the Holy Trinity, one God in three persons. We believe that the Church is one, holy, catholic and apostolic; and we acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

We believe our faith to be rooted in that of the Apostles, Christ's first disciples, those who knew and followed our Lord in this life. We recognise and treasure the Sacred Scriptures, as God's revelation of His love for all humanity. We recognise and hold in common the great ecumenical councils of the first five Christian centuries. We recognise, as our common heritage, the Gospel first brought to our shores so very long ago. We recall those from that time who led and formed the Church, nurturing a society inspired by Christian values, including St Ninian, St Columba and St Margaret.

We recognise the hurt and the harm that our forebears did to each other in times past, and we repent and ask forgiveness of one other. We also recognise that, even in more recent times, much could have been said between us more kindly, written more magnanimously, and done more charitably, to promote pardon and healing and friendship among Christians in our land.

Acknowledging what separates us still, we reaffirm that what we hold in common is often greater than what divides us. While recognising that unity does not mean uniformity, we commit ourselves to continuing our pilgrimage towards greater unity, as we believe that it is the Lord's will that we be one (John 17: 21). We trust that such developing unity in Christ is the Lord's work and the Spirit's doing.

We therefore pledge ourselves to live as sisters and brothers in Christ, in public and in private, in life and in mission; to pray with each other and for each other; to be good neighbours, both to each other and to all people among whom we live, of all faiths and none; and to work together for the common good of the nation, as it is given to us to see it.

May there be an ever more united Christian voice in the land, informed always by the charity and love of Christ and our call to participate in the mission of God. May we contribute to the good of society, while humbly learning from others and from our own mistakes. May our theological reflections and initiatives together thrive; and may our pilgrimage together in our dear land of Scotland bear much fruit to the good of all, and to the greater glory of God.

Opposition to Assisted Suicide

URGENT: Oppose plans to introduce Assisted Suicide to Scotland Care Not Killing (CNK), supported by the Catholic Parliamentary Office, has launched a petition which aims to stop plans to legalise assisted suicide. Liam McArthur MSP, has indicated that he expects to introduce his assisted suicide bill at Holyrood in early 2023, so we must act quickly. This bill risks undermining the provision of palliative care and undermining efforts to prevent suicide. It will make the most vulnerable people, including the elderly and disabled, feel like a burden and its safeguards will prove futile. The current law is the safeguard - it prohibits assisting someone's suicide and/or killing them by euthanasia. The state ought to support the provision of care, not deliberate killing, for those at the end of life. Please sign CNK's petition today. You will find the petition at the back of the church today. Alternatively, you can sign online at www.carenotkilling.scot

MASS TEXTS AND READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Ps 87:3

Let my prayer come into your presence. Incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.

First Reading

Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14

The King of the world will raise us up to live for ever.

Responsorial Psalm

I shall be filled, when I awake, with the sight of your glory, O Lord.

Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

Second Reading

St Paul to the Thessalonians 2:16-3:5

May the Lord strengthen you in everything good that you do or say.

Gospel Acclamation

Lk 21:36

Alleluia, alleluia! Stay awake praying at all times for the strength to stand with confidence before the Son of Man.

Gospel

Luke 20:27-38

He is of God, not of the dead, but of the living.

Communion Antiphon

Ps 22:1-2

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose, near restful waters he leads me.
