Jesuit Missions upcoming initiative for Advent, Beyond the Headlines.

Each day we are bombarded with news headlines. The War in Ukraine, the economic crisis, COVID 19, and climate change are but a few. As important as these headlines are, the dominance of a few issues tends to squeeze out other important topics, many of which are impacting on our brothers and sisters in the developing world in untold ways. This Advent we are asking you to consider these forgotten crises. South Sudan is the world's newest country and one plagued by ongoing violence, hunger and the impact of climate change. Ethiopia has experienced a civil war in Tigray since 2018, which has taken a terrible toll on the country and its people.

Act now to learn about these forgotten communities. By signing up to Beyond the Headlines: 7 days of Advent you will be taking part in an initiative which will allow you to receive daily updates with reflections, information, and ways you can act to create a more just world.

You can sign up by using this link <https://jesuitmissions.org.uk/beyond-the-headlines/> Resources will be available in the next few days.

55 years of the Abortion Act

27 October 2022 marked 55 years since the Abortion Act received Royal Assent in 1967. Since then, a staggering 10,021,618 unborn babies have lost their lives to abortion across England, Wales and Scotland. Right To Life UK have released a short two-minute video called The Ten Million, which attempts to illustrate what the UK has lost through the death of these millions of people. They are encouraging people to share the video with friends and family who may find it of interest: www.righttolife.org.uk/thetenmillion Prayer for today: -"Today we mark World Day of the Poor. We pray especially for all pregnant women who, due to financial struggles, feel pressured into having an abortion. We pray that, as a society, we would seek to provide a better system of care and aid for these women, enabling them to continue with their pregnancies and raise their children. Lord hear us"

Ecumenical Evening Prayer honouring St Margaret and marking the St Margaret Declaration , Thur 17th November 2022, 7pm St Andrew's Cathedral, Glasgow

The Saint Margaret Declaration between the Church of Scotland and the Catholic Church in Scotland: We believe in one God, the Creator; we believe in Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son, true God and true man, fully divine and fully human, who died in the flesh and rose to save us from sin and death; and we believe in the Holy Spirit. We believe in the Holy Trinity, one God in three persons. We believe that the Church is one, holy, catholic and apostolic; and we acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

We believe our faith to be rooted in that of the Apostles, Christ's first disciples, those who knew and followed our Lord in this life. We recognise and treasure the Sacred Scriptures, as God's revelation of His love for all humanity. We recognise and hold in common the great ecumenical councils of the first five Christian centuries. We recognise, as our common heritage, the Gospel first brought to our shores so very long ago. We recall those from that time who led and formed the Church, nurturing a society inspired by Christian values, including St Ninian, St Columba and St Margaret.

We recognise the hurt and the harm that our forebears did to each other in times past, and we repent and ask forgiveness of one other. We also recognise that, even in more recent times, much could have been said between us more kindly, written more magnanimously, and done more charitably, to promote pardon and healing and friendship among Christians in our land.

Acknowledging what separates us still, we reaffirm that what we hold in common is often greater than what divides us. While recognising that unity does not mean uniformity, we commit ourselves to continuing our pilgrimage towards greater unity, as we believe that it is the Lord's will that we be one (John 17: 21). We trust that such developing unity in Christ is the Lord's work and the Spirit's doing.

We therefore pledge ourselves to live as sisters and brothers in Christ, in public and in private, in life and in mission; to pray with each other and for each other; to be good neighbours, both to each other and to all people among whom we live, of all faiths and none; and to work together for the common good of the nation, as it is given to us to see it.

May there be an ever more united Christian voice in the land, informed always by the charity and love of Christ and our call to participate in the mission of God. May we contribute to the good of society, while humbly learning from others and from our own mistakes. May our theological reflections and initiatives together thrive; and may our pilgrimage together in our dear land of Scotland bear much fruit to the good of all, and to the greater glory of God.
