For people living on the margins

We pray for those persons living on the margins of society, in inhumane life conditions; may they not be overlooked by institutions and never considered of lesser importance.

Next Sunday our Second Collection will be taken for the work of SPRED

National Youth Choir of Scotland

Concert to be held in St Aloysius Church at 8.00 pm this Saturday 9th September.

Works by Urmas Sisack, Per Norgard, James Macmillan, Stacey Garrop and Benjamin Britten.

Becoming a Catholic

The RCIA course covers a complete explanation of the Catholic Faith, leading up to Easter. If you, or a person you know, would like to participate with a view to becoming a Catholic please contact Fr Mitchell or Fr Twist. The course begins on Monday 18th September. 7.30pm in the Ogilvie Centre.

Doors Open Day

Volunteers are needed to help with Doors Open Day this September. If you would like to get involved, please contact Fr Mitchell – email: staloyusius.garnethill@rcaq.org.uk or call 0141 332 3039.

Season of Creation Sustainability Picnic, Sunday 17 September at 1.30pm

St Aloysius' Parish and Jesuit Missions invite you to a Season of Creation Sustainability Picnic Sunday 17 September 2023 from 1.30 – 3.30 p.m. in Garnethill Park, at the corner of Rose Street and Hill Street. Jesuit Missions partners in places like Madagascar, India and Africa are already suffering from the impact of the climate crisis. Working together we can bring about change in our own lives and let our political leaders know that we seek real action now to protect the planet and our brothers and sisters around the world.

Season of Creation Ecumenical Service:

Glasgow Churches Together, with Eco Congregation Scotland, will hold a Season of Creation Service on Sunday 17th September at 4pm in St Andrew's West, 260 Bath Street G2 4JP. This will be led by EcoChaplain Rev David Coleman. Refreshments provided. All welcome.

Sycamore is an informal course about the Christian faith and its relevance for life today. It gives you space to meet other people, share ideas, explore your beliefs, and think about questions that really matter. The Deaf Sycamore Course welcomes anyone who is Deaf and Hard of Hearing and friends. It will run each Wednesday evening from Wednesday 4 October until Wednesday 15 November.

ORGANIST

St Aloysius' College is currently seeking an Organist to rehearse and accompany College Masses (Junior and Senior School) and rehearse and play for Schola masses on some Sundays and other occasions. In addition, you will be required to attend a minimum of two overnight visits in any calendar year and accompany at school events, including prize-giving and at least three other Music events throughout the year. You will have no set hours of work, however, you will be required to work on a number of Sundays and occasionally on a Saturday. A schedule of proposed engagements will be provided by your line manager but can be supplied in advance if required.

Letters of application and a completed application form should be emailed directly to apply@staloyisus.org no later than Friday 8th September. In order to assess all candidates equally and fairly we do not accept a CV in lieu of the application form.

Deanery Council: The Deanery Council of parish priests and lay representatives met again on Monday 21 August to discuss "pastoral areas". Our pastoral area has 4 parishes: ourselves, Turnbull Hall, St Peter's and St Patrick's.

Donations to St Aloysius can now be made using the card reader located at the back of the Church or by scanning this QR Code

Sunday Collection: If you are a regular and make your Sunday offering in cash, please consider setting up a Standing Order or making a weekly or monthly bank transfer. If you pay UK income tax, you can increase your donation – the government will add a further 25p to every £1 you donate under the gift aid scheme. Details are available from the Parish Office

Thank you for last Sunday's Collection - £1,231.51

Note that if you want to Gift Aid through the card reader, use the one on the right which will take some details; once you have done this all donations, via either reader, will be treated as Gift Aid and generate a 25% extra from HM Government.
