This Week's Feast Days

Good King Wenceslaus may have looked out on the feast of Stephen, but his feast day is on Wednesday of this week!

The 3 Archangels (feast Thursday this week) are Michael (power of God), Raphael (God heals), Gabriel. Michael is mentioned in the book of Revelations, Raphael in the book of Tobit, and Gabriel in the Annunciation and other places.

English Classes for Refugees (ESOL)

We are looking for volunteers to help who have skills in teaching and/or administration with IT skills. Please contact Kevin Wyber for more information on esol.staloysius@gmail.com. The classes are flourishing. We now get a lot of students from Ukraine. Let us not forget the hardships Ukraine continues to suffer.

Becoming a Catholic

Our third meeting of the RCIA group is on this Monday 26th September at 7.30pm in the Ogilvie Centre. It is for persons considering entering the Catholic Church. So if you, or a person you know, are interested in this please come along on Monday. All are welcome. If you have any questions please speak to Fr Twist or Fr Mitchell or contact staloysius.garnethill@rcag.org.uk

Church Restoration

Work is progressing on the restoration. Scaffolding now complete and paint preparation proceeding.

We now use the rear part of the church at week-ends (Sat & Sun). Please be careful as there is scaffolding etc. in the church, and avoid the marked off areas.

This weekend there will be confessions before each Mass; Mass on Saturday at 12.15 and 5.00pm; on Sunday at 10am, 12pm, 9pm; exposition Sunday afternoon from 1.30pm to 8.45pm.

The weekday Masses 8.00 am and 12.15 pm will be held in the Ignatian Spirituality Centre, 140 Scott Street.

Directions to the Ignatian Spirituality Centre for weekday Masses

From the church building on Rose Street, turn left onto Hill Street and walk up the hill. Turn second right onto Scott Street and you will arrive at the Ignatian Spirituality Centre. We apologise for any inconvenience at this time.

Accommodation Required

A mature Ukrainian refugee student has been accepted for a 4 year course in the Royal Conservatoire and seeks accommodation from about December. Willing to contribute to cost, and hoping to find a location reasonably close to College in the centre of Glasgow. If able to help please email Fr Twist on jtwistsj@jesuit.org.uk

Online Youth Ministry Resource Evening, Thurs 13th October 2022

The Archdiocesan Youth Team are hosting an online Zoom meeting on 13th October, 1900-2030, to share and explore many useful Life Teen resources which can be used for free in parishes to help engage your young parishioners. All those involved in working with young people or those just interested in finding out more are very welcome. Email to book your place youth@rcag.org.uk

The Floods in Pakistan

Pakistan is based on the river Indus, from which the name 'India' comes. The floods there are serious, but perhaps the greater worry is this could be a repeated pattern because of global warming.

Stella Reekie: Glasgow's Interfaith Pioneer (1922-1982) Sunday 2nd of October, 2-4pm
St Mungo Museum of Religious Life and Art, 2 Castle Street, G4 0RH

This year marks 100 years since the birth of Stella Reekie and 40 years since her death. A true trail blazer, Stella was a nurse and Church of Scotland missionary who worked with refugees and orphans during World War II, and later, in the 1970s, turned her Glasgow home into a safe space for dialogue and friendship among the increasingly diverse population in the Woodlands area. The Church of Scotland then purchased the "International Flat" in Glasgow Street, where Stella introduced many people on a journey of mutual learning and friendship that we are still benefiting from to this day. Join us to learn about Stella's life and legacy from some of the people who knew her best, and who were inspired by her to establish Glasgow's first interfaith group "Glasgow Sharing of Faiths" and to continue to develop interfaith relations in Scotland and beyond.

Speakers: Sr Isabel Smyth OBE (Roman Catholic), Founding Director of Interfaith Scotland
Brij Gandhi MBE (Hindu), Founder of the Meridian Black and Ethnic Minority Women's Resource Centre

David Lawson (Episcopal), Chair of Grassroots, an ecumenical Christian charity in Luton

George Ballantyne (Baha'i), Equality and Diversity Officer with Leicester Council of Faiths

Mass for the Receiving of the Pallium

Archbishop Nolan was present in Rome in June for the Mass at which the Holy Father blessed the Palliums of the new Metropolitan Archbishops. Pope Francis' practice is then to ask the Nuncio to bestow the Pallium on the new Archbishop in his Metropolitan Cathedral. This Rite will be celebrated by the Apostolic Nuncio, Archbishop Gugerotti, during a Mass in Saint Andrew's Metropolitan Cathedral, Clyde Street, on Saturday 22nd October at 12.00 noon. A warm invitation is extended to clergy and people of the Archdiocese.

Weekday Readings

We start reading the book of JOB at weekday readings this week. It is one of the most profound books in the Scriptures, exploring the problem of evil. Job never finds a solution to the problem, but is able to warn against empty explanations of it. Job comes to think that he will obtain a kind of lawyer who will plead his case before God, and this will bring him face to face to with God, which in some mysterious way will solve his problem. One passage is well known and often used at funerals: "I know that my redeemer lives, and that in the end he will stand on the earth. And after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I will see God; I myself will see him with my own eyes—I, and not another. How my heart yearns within me!

Thank you for last Sunday's collection. First Collection: £520.00

MASS TEXTS AND READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

First Reading

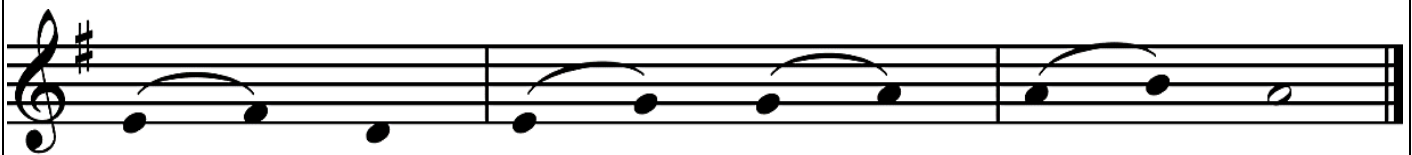

Amos 6:1, 4-7

Those who sprawl and those who bawl will be exiled.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 145:6-10. R. v.2

My soul, give praise to the Lord.

Praise__ the Lord,__ my____ soul!_____

Second Reading

St Paul to Timothy 6:11-16

Do all that you have been told until the Appearing of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Jn 10:27

Alleluia, alleluia! The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice, says the Lord, I know them and they follow me.

Gospel

Luke 16:19-31

Good things came your way, just as bad things came the way of Lazarus. Now he is being comforted here while you are in agony.

Communion Antiphon

Cf. Ps 118:49-50

Remember your word to your servant, O Lord, by which you have given me hope. This is my comfort when I am brought low.
